

Marien van der Meer

Marien van der Meer MSc has been a member of the Board of Directors of the Netherlands Cancer Institute as CFOO since 2016, and is responsible for the organization and operational management portfolio.

During her professional career, she has accumulated over fifteen years of experience as a Board member or General Director in hospitals in The Netherlands. She has a proven track record in strategy development and organizational and leadership development, and a special interest in digital transformation, capacity management/supply chain management, innovation and sustainability.

In her position as NKI Board member she is responsible for Finance, Health Procurement, Human Resources, Marketing, Communication and Fundraising, Real Estate, Information Management and Operations.

She graduated in Public Administration at Leiden University.